Great Lakes Ace Hardware to Acquire Detroit-Area Macomb Ace

Farmington Hills, Mich. (October 27, 2025) – Great Lakes Ace Hardware announced today it has agreed to acquire Macomb Ace Hardware, located at 51254 Romeo Plank Road in Macomb Township, Mich. The transaction is expected to close on January 11, 2026.

Founded in 2007 by Greg Oman following a successful corporate career, Macomb Ace Hardware has served as a trusted resource for Macomb Township and neighboring communities for more than 18 years.

Oman said, "Our goal was to be a difference maker and trusted neighbor in our community by providing real value through knowledgeable service, quality products, and convenient access to home improvement solutions. I am incredibly proud of what we've built. Most of all, I'm grateful to our team members who brought that vision to life each day by delivering on the Ace Helpful Promise."

He added, "We are excited to transition the store to Great Lakes Ace Hardware. They share our values, and we are confident that they will build on our strong foundation and continue to deliver excellence for our customers and associates."

Joe Jeffries, president and CEO of Ace Retail Holdings, the parent company of Great Lakes Ace Hardware, praised the store's long-standing impact. He said, "For nearly two decades, Macomb Ace Hardware has been a vital part of the Macomb Township community. They have embodied the spirit of helpful and experienced service that is the cornerstone of the Ace brand. We're honored to carry that legacy forward and are eager to serve the community with the same dedication and care."
